Temple Sholom Annual Gala

Saturday, January 27 — See back cover

This year's Gala will feature the musical sounds of New York City Swing. Bring your dancing shoes and help us celebrate three women who have contributed a lot to Temple Sholom: Travis Azous, Beth Cutler and Phyllis Rakowitz.

Nuts and Bolts of the B'nai Mitzvah

Thursday, February 1, 7:00 pm

This workshop is intended for families with b'nai mitzvahs scheduled in 2019. We will review the process leading up to your child's simcha, and discuss tutoring, choosing a mitzvah project, writing a d'var torah and more. Eileen Robin (Executive Director), Alice Schoen (Congregational Coordinator), Rabbi Mitch and Ezra Konigsberg (Ritual Director/Hazzan Sheni) will be available to answer all of your questions.

JEWISH NETWORK OF YOUNG COUPLES

Bowling Night

Saturday, January 20, 7:30 pm

Hit the lanes with JNYC. JNYC is open to anyone living in Fairfield or Westchester Counties, regardless of Temple membership. Price and location to be determined.

For more information, contact JNYCGreenwich@gmail.com.

Temple Sholom's Social Action Committee (SAC)

is actively involved with fulfilling the mitzvah of tikkun olam (repairing the world) throughout the year. In addition to the projects listed, we support many other local organizations and engage in a number of ongoing programs. If you would like to volunteer, please email Scott Kramer, Social Action Chair, at skramer175@gmail.com.

COLLECTIONS

Collection bins will be located in the lobby of Temple Sholom for the month of December.

Annual Toy Drive

December 1–December 31

Your gift of a new, unwrapped toy will be donated to David's Treasure Tree Closet located in the pediatric unit at Stamford Hospital. Your contribution helps all children admitted to the hospital receive a gift.

Diapers & Wipes Drive/ Winter Accessories Drive

December 1–December 31

We will be hosting a diapers and wipes drive, as well as collecting NEW winter accessories including gloves, scarves, long underwear and hats to donate to Mothers for Others and Neighbor to Neighbor, respectively.

Mitzvah Project Fair

Sunday, January 7, 11:00 am–1:00 pm

Calling all upcoming b'nai mitzvah families! Come connect with representatives from non-profit organizations and learn about available community service projects both locally and abroad. The Mitzvah Project Fair is free and open to the public, and is part of the Annual Party Planning Showcase (see back cover).

Community Blood Drive

Monday, January 8, 1:30 pm–6:30 pm

The Temple Sholom Social Action Committee has a long-standing commitment to working with the American Red Cross. Temple Sholom hosts regular blood drives throughout the year. Participate in this important mitzvah by contacting the American Red Cross directly to schedule an appointment, 203-681-3298 or www.redcrossblood.org.

Project Ezra Senior Luncheon

Sunday, February 4, Noon

Volunteers of all ages are needed to make this annual Senior Luncheon a success! Our guests from Project Ezra of the Lower East Side and the local area will arrive for lunch at noon. Volunteers can choose to set up and prepare lunch or help greet and serve our guests. Shifts begin at 10:00 am. To sign up for a shift, contact alice.schoen@templesholom.com, 203-542-7165.

UNDER 18 MONTHS

Itsy Bitsy Playgroup*

*Wednesdays, 10:30 am–11:30 am
December 6, 13; January 3, 10, 17, 24, 31;
February 7, 21, 28*

Whether you are a first time parent or have multiple children, come chat and play with us at this free playgroup for parents with infants and toddlers. Connect with other parents over the joys and bumps of parenthood, while children are engaged in a group setting with music, motor play and story time. Weekly discussions are facilitated by the group leader on topics relevant to Jewish or Interfaith parents, and parenting professionals will be brought in occasionally to share their area of expertise. For more information contact David Cohen, Nursery School Director, 203-622-8121, david.cohen@templesholom.com.

Itsy Bitsy will not meet on December 20 & 27 or on February 14.*

PRE-SCHOOL AND YOUNGER

Pajama Shabbat

*Fridays, 5:30 pm–6:30 pm
December 8 with Adam Feder
January 5 with Sheldon Low*

This spirited introduction to Shabbat features singing, dancing and storytelling. Children are encouraged to wear their pajamas. A family-friendly dinner will follow. No charge, but please RSVP to alice.schoen@templesholom.com or 203-542-7165.
