“Are American Jews Losing their Jewish Identity?” with Dr. Richard Rubin

Tuesday, May 8, 7:00 pm

Dr. Richard Rubin, author of Jewish in America, will present his well-researched view on the current state of Jewish identity in America and what it portends for the American Jewish future. Dr. Rubin’s goal is to jumpstart the conversation on Jewish identity and continuity among as many audiences as possible. Free and open to the community. RSVP required to Alice Schoen at 203-542-7165 or alice.schoen@templesholom.com.

Temple Sholom’s Social Action Committee (SAC)

is actively involved with fulfilling the mitzvah of tikkun olam (repairing the world) throughout the year. In addition to the projects listed, we support many other local organizations and engage in a number of ongoing programs. If you would like to volunteer, please email Scott Kramer, Social Action Chair, at skramer175@gmail.com.

Community Blood Drive

Monday, March 5, 1:30 pm–6:30 pm

The Temple Sholom Social Action Committee has a long-standing commitment to working with the American Red Cross. Temple Sholom hosts regular blood drives throughout the year. Participate in this important mitzvah by contacting the American Red Cross directly to schedule an appointment, 203-681-3298 or www.redcrossblood.org.

Pre-Passover Food Drive

March 16–March 29

Please help us collect non-perishable food items to support Neighbor to Neighbor, our community food bank. There will be collection bins in the Temple lobby.

UNDER 18 MONTHS

Itsy Bitsy Playgroup*

*Wednesdays, 10:30 am–11:30 am
March 7, 14, 21, 28; April 11, 18, 25;
May 2, 9, 16, 23, 30*

Whether you are a first time parent or have multiple children, come chat and play with us at this free playgroup for parents with infants and toddlers. Connect with other parents over the joys and bumps of parenthood, while children are engaged in a group setting with music, motor play and story time. Weekly discussions are facilitated by the group leader on topics relevant to Jewish or Interfaith parents, and parenting professionals will be brought in occasionally to share their area of expertise. For more information contact David Cohen, Nursery School Director, 203-622-8121, david.cohen@templesholom.com.

Itsy Bitsy will not meet on April 4.*

PRE-SCHOOL AND YOUNGER

Pajama Shabbat

*Fridays, 5:30 pm–6:30 pm
